NOTICE.

THE President desires to point out that members of the Society may from time to time be in possession of interesting experimental data which, although not suitable for publication in the form of a paper, are, nevertheless, worth placing on record.

The Council has accordingly agreed that the pages of the Journal should be open to the inclusion of short notes dealing with analytical practice and kindred matters.

Members are invited to send such notes to the Editor for submission to the Publication Committee in the usual manner. The first series of these notes will be found on p. 31 of this issue.
